Union Square in Bloom

A Floral Community Driven Campaign

Union Square in Bloom is a powerful, six-month celebration (March-August 2026) designed to captivate San Francisco. This vibrant campaign will draw hundreds of thousands to the city's iconic heart through major events like Tulip Day, generating widespread positive media and positioning our partners at the center of San Francisco's comeback story.

More than a campaign, this is a cultural movement. We are leaning into our rich floral traditions to champion the city's recovery, cultural identity, and economic vitality. This is a unique opportunity to align your brand with the beauty, innovation, and unwavering spirit of Union Square, creating a lasting legacy.

We invite you to join this landmark celebration and secure a premier role in writing the next chapter of San Francisco's success.

Union Square in Bloom

A Floral Community Driven Campaign

What

Union Square in Bloom is a six-month celebration of floral artistry, fashion, music, and community, transforming San Francisco’s iconic Union Square into a living canvas of color and creativity from March through August enjoyed by 3.3 Million visitors

Why

For decades, flowers—especially daffodils—have been a vibrant part of our community, from Maiden Lane giveaways to Macy’s Flower Show dating back to 1964.

The Alliance continues this tradition with Union Square in Bloom. By uniting the district around this seasonal theme, we aim to welcome visitors, workers, and residents to support the heart of San Francisco

Where

Major Events take place at Union Square Plaza while community driven programming and floral installations cover all of the Union Square District.

The Union Square district is a 27-block area surrounding Union Square approximately form Market Street – Bush Street and Kearny – Mason Street.

Partnership Advantages

Union Square in Bloom

Union Square in Bloom is more than a campaign; it is a cultural movement where we lean into our rich floral traditions in Union Square, supporting our cultural identity and solidifying the recovery of San Francisco. A movement that will celebrate Union Square all spring and summer leading right up to the Holiday Season. We welcome our partners to align their iconic brand with the beauty, innovation, and community spirit for which Union Square is known.

Social Good

Directly support Union Square's local businesses, which are the economic engine of San Francisco. This support strengthens the district's role as a central hub for culture and tourism and bolsters the hotels and hospitality services.

Brand Visibility

Broaden your brand's reach by leveraging the Union Square Alliance's channels and prominent brand placement to connect with a global audience of tourists, California visitors, and Bay Area residents.

Reach Desired Demographics

Connect with a large audience both in person and digitally. Union Square is a magnet for residents, workers and tourists, who make the District a top attraction in the city.

Civic Positioning

Sponsors have the opportunity to speak at major events, connect with City Officials, local business owners, and visitors.

Long-term Presence

This 6-month campaign provides extended exposure to keep your brand top of mind, offering exceptional value and a sustained return on investment.

Exclusive Presenting Sponsor

1 available

Secure the pinnacle of partnership as the Exclusive Presenting Sponsor for Union Square in Bloom 2026. This is the only level that offers headline positioning for the entire campaign, lead sponsorship of the massive Tulip Day event, and broad category exclusivity.

Your brand will be synonymous with this celebrated San Francisco tradition, benefiting from unmatched media exposure, top billing on all materials, and unique C-suite engagement, including a private meeting with City Officials.

This is the premier opportunity for a brand seeking to lead and own the narrative and provides the most powerful platform.

Featured Sponsor

2 available

Capture the premier spotlight as a Featured Sponsor, securing the highest level of visibility under the Presenting position.

This tier is designed for high-impact brand association, offering prominent level positioning at all major events, including Tulip Day, and significant features in top-tier media.

While sharing some executive-level perks with the Presenting Sponsor, such as public speaking roles, this level provides a strong platform for brand elevation and widespread recognition for a market leader.

Local Business Sponsor

1 available

Become the heart of the celebration with the Local Business Sponsor level, a community-centric tier focused on gaining primary positioning for the “Local Garden” monthly event program.

Unlike other levels, this sponsorship is designed for deep, hyper-local engagement, requiring active partnership with other Union Square businesses. It offers unique, relationship-building benefits like a speaking opportunity at the private Bloomie Awards, making it the ideal choice for businesses focused on cultivating authentic, grassroots connections within the community.

This is an ideal opportunity for brands that want to be seen as supporting small businesses, the engine of our local economy.

Supporting Sponsors

3 available

Establish a consistent and ubiquitous brand presence throughout the six-month campaign as a Supporting Sponsor.

This foundational level is the most accessible way to ensure your brand is associated with the entirety of Union Square in Bloom. It guarantees your logo will be included on most event collateral, the campaign webpage, and across core marketing channels.

While other tiers offer deeper engagement, this level is perfect for brands seeking continuous, widespread visibility and recognition as a key supporter of the event series.

Event Activation Sponsors

5 available

Achieve direct, hands-on brand activation as an Event Activation Sponsor.

This highly targeted level moves beyond passive logo placement and allows your team to engage face-to-face with attendees at premier events like the Bloom Fashion Show.

Ideal for brands focused on experiential marketing, this package provides the physical space and promotional support to create memorable, personal interactions at the campaign's most exclusive gatherings.
